CHURCH BOOK OF CLEAR CREEK
McNAIRY COUNTY, TENNESSEE

The following records were copied from the original minute book of the Clear Creek Church of McNairy Co., Tenn., and are contributed to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mrs. Vivian Perkins Harrison, 1572 Overton Park, Apt. #11, Memphis, Tennessee. Due to the fact that these records are so lengthy, we plan to publish some of them in each issue until completed.

Record of the Clear Creek Church met on Saturday the 15th of February 1841.

Being called to order preceeded to business and after various exertions to settle the old difficulties existing in the church it was ascertained that they could not be settled without a division in the church. It was resolved that the following proposition should be submitted. (Viz)

All persons who are willing to live together and serve the Lord according to the Bible and the Bible alone and to acknowledge all their falts and to forgive each other all former trespasses will make it known by coming forward and giving Brother JOHN H. JONES the right hand of fellowship.

It was also furthermore resolved (Viz) That all those who would come forward on the above resolution after sufficient time had been given them should be considered as manifesting an unwillingness to conform to the rules and regulations of the Church of Christ and therefore should be withdrawn from.

By order of the Church.

WATCH YOUR DATES!

One hundred seventy years after Pope Gregory corrected the Julian calendar, Great Britain brought their calendar up to date by dropping eleven days from September. September 2, 1752, was thus followed by September 14, 1752. At the same time, they changed the date of New Year's Day from March 25th to January 1st. Consequently, dates taken from original English or English Colonial documents prior to September 14, 1752, which fall in the months January, February, and up to March 25, will have to be up-dated one year in order to conform to our present calendar. Dates before September 14, 1752, should have 11 days added to the original date if one wants the date to conform to the modern calendar. Until 1753, January, February, and March were the last three months of the old year in England and the Colonies, instead of the first three months of the new year, as they now are. Scotland, however, adopted January 1st as New Year's Day in 1600. Germany adopted the Gregorian or modern calendar entirely in 1700.

English and Colonial dates are sometimes found written February 1730/31. This does not mean the recorder was confused as to which year it was, it means February 1731 in our calendar, or New Style. We also find dates written "February 21, 1720 O. S.", meaning February 21, 1720, Old Style (or February 21, 1721, on the present calendar). This difference in dating can also solve a puzzle which sometimes arises when the birthdates of two children are given as say, 2 or 3 months apart.

If this dating situation is a nuisance, pity the poor family researcher who is looking up French records for the period 1795-1807. In 1795, France revived the original calendar of Egypt, dating back to 4246 B.C. They called it "The Calendar of Reason". There were 12 months of 30 days, each month divided into 10-day periods with individual names. The 5 extra days at the end of the year were set aside as holidays and called "Sans Culottes" after the poor people of France - meaning "without pants". Fortunately for everybody, the Calendar of Reason lasted only 12 years.

YOU MISSED IT

H. D. Carloss who lives on Lovers Lane between U.S. 41A and the Lafayette Road, thinks we missed some good bets if we didn't attend this auction. A copy of the notice advertising the sale lists among the things to be sold:

1 doz. wooden pitchforks
1,500 ten-foot fence rails
20 pounds of mutton tallow
100 empty barrels
3 scythes and cradles
100 split hoops
1 plow with wooden mould board
2 spinning wheels
2 ox carts
1 sixty-gallon soap kettle
40 gallons of sorghum molasses
85 sugar troughs
1 large loom
1 forty gallon copper still

But if you overlooked the sale, it's too late to go now. It occurred on March 1, 1849, and the above ad was published in the Breeder's Gazette of that year. The articles auctioned off belonged to J. L. Moss of Versailles. Mr. Moss was selling out to head for Oregon Territory by ox-team.

The above newspaper article was found among papers belonging to H. D. Carloss, deceased, who lived in Christian Co., Kentucky, and was submitted to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mr. Don Carloss, Sr., 137 Terrace Place, Jackson, Tenn. 38301.

I got to his house the 15 of last October and I was in a low state of health, I have not wrote since/ I have been at Uncles untill this, but He wrote you and stateing where I was and we have waited with a great deal of patience but with a great deal of reluctance to receive answer but we have not received one yet, the last I wrote to you and was in last July and I mentioned where to write to me/ but I have never received the first one yet/ I have thougt that I wanted to see you all, but my dear Mother if you all but did know my feelings you then could do something about it/ It appears to me that if I had five hundred dollars that I would give it if I was with you all. I have traveled a good deal though the world but I like Kentucky best of any place I have seen yet, though this is a fine country/ if you all was out here it would give me the greatest satisfaction in this life, Uncle wrote expressly for you all to come out if possible and we want you all to write to us as soon as possible and whether you all will come or not/ tell James Baker that this is the greatest country for his business that I have ever seen yet, and if you all will come I am confident that you will never repent it, common sides of upper leather sells for $3.50 and that badly tanned and not blacked at all and they have to send 25 to 30 miles for thir leather/ I have bought dry hides from 3 to 4½ cents per pound, I want to hear from you all so as to know how my children is situated and to fix some writings for Uncle Mark to get what is coming to them/ I want you and Uncle to make use of what stock I have as you think proper. Tell Mr. Wilson that if I owe Him any thing that I will settle it when I come/ that the load of tobacco that I haul for him would pay for what He was security for me, I want you to be sure to tell Robert Wilson and Charles Wilson to be sure to come to this country if they want to do well for themselves. I want you to find out where Stephen Hudson lives and John Pointer. I have nothing more at present but remain your affectionate son untill death/

HENRY REED OF DYER COUNTY, TENNESSEE

The following is the second in a series of nine biographies of the direct ancestors of Mr. Donald G. Brown, 2053 Berdan Ave., Toledo, Ohio 43613. (See Vol. III, No. 3, p.87.)

HENRY REED was born in the 1780's in North Carolina, probably in Burke County. His father was HUGH REED and his mother was undoubtedly ELIZABETH HOLMES, and they had moved to Burke County from Rowan County, North Carolina, about the time that HENRY was born. HENRY'S grandfather was also named HUGH REED, and it appears that he had gone to Rowan County, North Carolina, from Pennsylvania -- either Chester or Lancaster County -- about the 1760's. HENRY'S parents were in Burke County by the early 1780's, and they were still there at the time of the 1790 census, probably living in that part of the county which today is part of Caldwell or Alexander County. Sometime before 1800 the REEDS moved to Oglethorpe County, Georgia, and then in the early 1800's they moved north to Tennessee.

HENRY was married to ELIZABETH GIBSON, also a native of North Carolina, probably about 1817. The place of their marriage is unknown, but in the 1820 census HENRY was listed in Perry County, Tennessee. In this same census his father was listed in Maury County, Tennessee. In 1824 HUGH REED deeded his son, HENRY, two hundred acres of land in Gibson County, Tennessee. At the time HENRY was living in Henderson County, Tennessee, where he was later listed in the 1830 census. However, it appears that HENRY also lived in Gibson County sometime during the mid or late 1820's; his brothers, ROBERT and HUGH, lived in Gibson County for years. HENRY moved to Dyer County, Tennessee, about 1837, where he spent the rest of his life.

HENRY died in the 1840's in Dyer County, leaving an estate which included 533 acres of land. In Dyer County he lived in Civil District #9, in the vicinity of Newbern; and he is undoubtedly buried there, but an extensive search for his tombstone failed. ELIZABETH apparently died in Dyer County in the 1860's, and no tombstone has been found for her either.

HENRY and ELIZABETH were the parents of at least five children: MARGARET, born about 1818, who was married to a man with the surname of TURNER about 1842, and who died in January, 1850; HENRY, born about 1826, who died in February, 1850, both he and MARGARET dying of pneumonia; ELIZABETH, born about 1826, who was married to NORVELL SCOBEY about 1849, and who died on June 20, 1894; MARY ANN, born about 1830, who was married to MICHAEL T. BARLOW about 1849, and who died about 1893; and JOHN N., born about 1831, who was married to D. EMALINE MIDDLETON of Gibson County, Tennessee, on January 17, 1858, in Gibson County, and who died in Dyer County about 1885.

The REEDS were Presbyterians, undoubtedly of the Cumberland division.

LETTER TO MISS MATTIE DIAL FROM CALLIE VERNON: Submitted to FAMILY FINDINGS by Mrs. J. E. Balmer, Box 35 Gatebo, Okla. 73041. The following note, signed Malcolm V. Balmer, was written at the bottom of the page sent to your Editor: "Callie was my father's half-sister, and a grand-daughter of John Chisum of Madison County, Tenn., and of R. H. Vernon of Hardeman County, Tenn. The letter was written to Martha Caroline Dial, youngest sister of her step-mother. Can anyone give me the names of the wives of William Chisum and William Chisum, Jr.?"

Miss Mattie Dial June the 12 1870

Esteem friend I take grate pleasure in acknowledging the receipt of your unexpected letter which was recently received. I am moved this eavening though I was determined to have a foundation to move on. I have never received a line untill this evening from you and when I came to the part you wrote it made me think something like the dead coming to life. Well Mat, as you was saying something about Mr. W.H.P. I will give you the last account I had of him. He came down to Rusk about a week before I left Texas an wanted me to go and keep house for him but I gave him his walking paper and I have not heard from him since. Those boys that I wrote to Ma about are far superior in looks and I elect they will not do to put in comparison with him at all. Mat I go to Sunday School every Sunday and we are going to celebrate the 4 of July. Our teacher has offord us a prize and it keeps the memory stretched in my knowledge box. We are all working for it. I have one 100 verses committed to memory in 2 weeks. I was at an examination in Meadon last Thursday. It contained about 60 scholars, and I also heard a debate on Womans rights. I thought it very good sometimes and sometimes I did not. Some gave them justice and some gave them no right at all. Mat I am looking for that Mr. Williams down this week. The school is out and he will be apt to come home with Cousin Billie. If he does I will have to be on my pese and quese and do the best I can for him. Mat I wish that I could be with you all but you see how it is. I take the world as I come to it and it may be that some day I can come to you all. Mat, I had a beau yesterday and he is a beau and a half. We call him the girls pest. He has tryed all and can get none of them. I think I shall have to set him up before long. I have not gone to school since I went to Harriet in Wood County. I graduated at that school though I have tryed to keep what little I did learn and add to it as I could. Dee and I have been peacing up some quilts and quilting them. We have got a cotton patch on hand this year Aunt Caroline. We have three acres in. Uncle William plows it for us and we have got through the worst of the grass. Mat I want you all to send me your photographs and I will send you mine when I get the opportunity of having some taken. You must write soon. Never mind mistakes for if they were diseases I would have been dead long ago. I want you to address your letters to Meadon, Madison Co., Tenn. That is Uncles PO. I will get them sooner. If you please. Nothing more at present.

Your sincere friend
Callie Vernon

Mr. W. C. (P?) Chisum

A marker at the grave of Elijah Chisholm was unveiled Sunday by the Rock House Chapter D. A. R. Rev. P. E. Doran made a very interesting talk and gave some facts about the life of the deceased. CHISUM FAMILY, contributed by Mrs. Laura Robinson Kane, Rt. #6, Box 78W, Austin, Texas 78746.

HISTORICAL MARKER on Washington Street, Paris, Lamar Co., Texas.
John S. Chisum, 16 August 1824 - 22 December 1881.
Lucinda Chisum, 24 October 1801 - 31 October 1832.
Claiborne Chisum, 22 June 1797 - 24 October 1857.
(The Historical Marker has been there quite a number of years. Supposedly, there are seven graves where they placed it. The only evidence was the marker which had the three names on it. I assume that Lucinda & Claiborne Chisum were the parents of John.)

Other Chisum graves in a cemetery in Paris were:
Robert C. Chisum, 10 May 1858 - 15 November 1933.
Emily B. Chisum, 30 June 1862 - 25 October 1911 - on same stone.
William Dowell Chisum, 7 Jan. 1898 - 6 May 1929.

Columbia Encyclopaedia, 2d ed. states that John S. Chisum built the first courthouse in Paris, Texas; that he settled there in 1827. (Census records would contradict this and show ca 1841-1842.) The encyclopaedia states that he, in partnership with Charles Goodnight, established the GOODNIGHT TRAIL from Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, to Wyoming. There is a John S. Chisum ranch near Roswell, New Mexico, and in New Mexico, a Chisum trail. Further reference if George D. Hendricks' THE BADMAN OF THE WEST. There is a picture of John S. Chisum as well as Charles Goodnight on p. or between pages 48 and 49. One book (Col. Ency.) states that he hired Sheriff Pat Garrett to get rid of Billy the Kid and other outlaws. Billy the Kid did at one time work for him. James Chisum, brother of John S., was referred to in the letter published in FAMILY FINDINGS, Vol.II., No. 3, 1970, p. 85. John S. Chisum's middle name was "Simpson".

Since the Mid-West Tennessee Genealogical Society is a non-profit organization, your Editor feels that our subscribers and readers would like to know how our organization has spent the proceeds from FAMILY FINDINGS. Just recently we spent over $500 to purchase microfilm of the 1800 and 1810 census of all North Carolina and South Carolina Counties available, the 1810 census of Kentucky and Virginia Counties, and completed all census records for the West Tennessee Counties for 1860 and 1880. These microfilms have been placed in the Jackson Madison County Library here in Jackson, Tennessee. Our members will greatly benefit from having these census records available at all times, as well as the visitors of the Library.
